Notes for Schools (Not part of the Statement of Intent)

The statement of intent is intended to be a simple, short document that Governing Bodies and Headteachers can adopt as part of their School's overall compliance with GDPR. It recognises that Schools are required to appoint DPOs and enables the Governing Body and Headteacher to demonstrate that they understand and adopt the principles contained in the GDPR relating to DPOs.

It is not a legal requirement for the Governing Body and Headteacher to adopt the statement. However, it serves as a useful checklist of the School's obligations in respect of DPOs. It could also form part of a suite of policies and processes which will help a school to ensure/demonstrate compliance with GDPR.
